Napa Community Bank Announces Featured Artists

Every Two Months Different Artwork by Local Artists Exhibited in Bank's Lobby

NAPA, Calif. – (September 25, 2009) – Napa Community Bank is pleased to announce an exhibition of artwork by students in the Queen of the Valley Medical Center: Weekly Wellness Art Class. The class is designed for all Napa County residences that live with a chronic condition like cancer, heart failure or diabetes, The Wellness Art Classes reduce stress and anxiety while promoting healing and relaxation. It's a great way to meet new people, stimulate your mind and soothe your body.

Joe Roter, Master Fine-Graphic-Therapy Artist is the creator of the Wellness Art Classes; he offers weekly art classes in a non-threatening atmosphere without analysis, judgment or criticism. The artwork will be on display at Napa Community Bank through October 31, 2009. For more information visit the Queen of the Valley Medical Center's Wellness Center, 2nd Floor 3421 Villa Lane – Napa. Or call Liz Alessio, Community Benefits Coordinator, at 707-251-2007.
